THE OLIVE BRANCH

NEW CARLISLE HIGH SCHOOL
NEW CARLISLE, INDIANA
VOL. XX

As time goes by, many people fail to contribute their most to the world around them; however, one man, through the course of his life, has dedicated himself to preparing others for the future which they face. Through his many years of teaching, Mr. Pfeiffer has earned the deepest respect of his students.

Mr. Pfeiffer seems to realize there is opportunity in each passing moment. He has taken advantage of this knowledge and has accomplished much for the world around him. The people who have come in contact with him appreciate his sincerity and devotion for tackling the tasks before him. He accepts his responsibilities and carries them out wholeheartedly. For this very reason each of his students has benefited from his teaching.

As he faces the future, we can be sure he still has the enthusiastic outlook on life; and, although this is his last year of teaching, it will not be his last year of helping those around him. He will continue to have the respect of those who know him. Therefore, with our deepest gratitude we dedicate the 1967 Olive Branch to Mr. Darle Pfeiffer.

As Mr. Pfeiffer well knows, the time seems to rush by without our even realizing it. Soon this year will be over, and the events will become fond memories. The 1967 staff will try to capture the important happenings in this short phase of our lives. Many events occur each day, and out of these we hope to record the prominent ones. Therefore, in the years to come, this book will help students to recoll the year of 1967.

ACTIVITY

Time flies and draws us with it. The moment in which I am speaking is already far from me.

DOORS OPEN AT 6:30

THEN PRACTICES

Throughout the year several early practices were held to achieve the perfection needed.

BEGIN

PRE-SCHOOL

ACTIVITIES . . .

Whether walking or riding, most students arrived by 8:00 a.m.

Activities before the first bell caused hustle among faculty and students.

. . . FIND MUCH CONFUSION

EVERY HOUR OF THE DAY . . .

"Attention please," starts a day filled with discovery, whether it be in health, foreign language, or physical education.

Dan Engel's discovery was that there is another means of escape from study hall, besides the doors.

PROVIDES . . .

FAMILIAR . . .

Mental cultivation produces rewards
—ar in some cases exhaustion.

COMICAL . . .

Many classes required careful thought, concentration, and technical accuracy. However, at times we became too involved in our thoughts; and as a result, accidents occurred.

THOUGHTFUL . . .

MOMENTS.

Some students prefer a nourishing lunch while others choose sweet snacks.

HUNGRY TEEN-AGERS GO FOR

FOOD

"Afternoon Monatany" was temporarily cured at times by a dose of fresh air, exercise, pranks, and programs.

Even Mr. Miller takes time out from his busy schedule to be honored by the Latin Club.

AFTERNOON HOURS COMBINE ORDINARY

WITH UNUSUAL

ASSEMBLIES . . .

PROJECTS . . .

The successful all-school play, the induction of new NHS members, and the Hi-Y Christmas program provided interest for students.

Enthusiasm was displayed by the Hi-Y food basket collection, yearbook sales, ring purchases and other projects.

INTERESTS FOR ALL

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS

During Christmas vacation a new brand of wax was put on the floors; therefore, some students found it hard to walk.

Nevertheless, they made their way to assemblies to hear special speakers, participate in special events, and cheer Tigers to victory.

FOR STUDENTS

Although most students were anxious to leave school at 3:15, many stayed to participate in numerous activities.

Athletics and GAA provided an outlet for the active, while yearbook and FTA worked long hours to benefit other students.

CLASSES END AND

ACTIVITIES BEGIN

CLUBS PROVIDE ## A VARIETY OF INTERESTS

A new and interesting project was the dedication to the Servicemen by the FTA. The FFA entered several contests, and the FHA had their annual cookbook sales. The Tigerettes performed at half-time during games.

FOR STUDENTS

NEVER A DULL

MOMENT

Students entertained and were entertained by participating in a number of activities.

Cancerts, plays and class parties were among the many that kept students on the go.

HOMECOMING BONFIRE

Homecoming highlighted the football season—Ringling of the Victory Bell, Snake Dancing, and a blazing Bonfire became a new part of the Homecoming festivities.

Football was the center of interest on the oction scene, as fans turned out to cheer the team on to victory.

Everyone's enthusiasm created exciting games this season.

CUPID'S

Throughout "Cupid's Turnabout Week," the girls cheerfully catered to the boys' wishes. On Friday the candidates for "Prince and Princess of Hearts" were presented to the students. The climax of the week was the dance when Steve Smith and Claudia Carr were crowned Prince and Princess.

TURNABOUT WEEK CREATES EXCITEMENT

DAY IS FINALLY DONE

The hour is late. Everyone is gone. New Carlisle High School will be quiet until a new day starts.

Following the established tradition of previous Juniors, the class of '68 ordered their class rings. The class chose the "Classic", a design never seen on the ring market before.

Among the many other Junior activities, planning the annual prom was one of the most outstanding. The days before the prom were hectic, but all worries were in vain, for the prom was a glorious success.

The Juniors are preparing for their final year at NCHS, and anticipating a great one.

Junior Officers, STANDING: Dan Akin, president. SITTING: Brenda Cax, secretary; Wayne Daba, treasurer; Mark Belsaas, vice president.

CLASS OF '69

Sophomore Officers: Stan Noel, president; Bonnie Deer, vice president; Lynell Clark, treasurer; Sue Shoff, secretary.

Sophomores began the school year with the annual magazine sales. They achieved and went over the top of their goal.

After class meetings and a lot of discussion, the class selected black jackets with orange lettering. They arrived at the end of the first semester. Being of strong school spirit, the sophomores won the "spirit stick" several times. They added members to all the school's clubs and organizations, including sports in which they contributed players to all Varsity squads.

As their high school careers reached the halfway mark, the Class of '69 await their Junior year in which they will order class rings and take part in Prom planning.

Eagerly awaiting the beginning of school, the new class of freshmen anticipated the beginning days of high school—with the problems of lockers, chums, classes and books.

The day arrived and the class had their first class-officer election. From then on they were busy accepting the responsibility of high school studies and homework.

As the year progressed the freshmen began anticipating the next year when they will get their class jackets, and sell magazines for their treasury.

Freshman officers: Dennis Higgins, vice president; Rich Dodd, president; Diana McDonnough, treasurer; Marsha Watkins, secretary.

Farewell

When graduation day approaches
And our eyes slowly fill with tears,
We realize with sudden sadness
That our parting time is near.

The rooms once so familiar
Become a treasure to behold,
For hidden within these ordinary rooms
Are our memories of precious gold.

Memories fond and cherished
Of good times shared with friends,
Memories full of laughter and gladness,
Memories that will never end.

But our years weren't easy-going;
We had our share of falls.
Yet patience and determination
Enabled us to overcome them all.

At last our task has been accomplished.
Our first goal has been reached.
And now we'd like to advise you
With words so often preached:

Study hard, but stay healthy;
Be careful in anything you do.
Always be considerate of your teachers.
Now good luck and may God bless you.

There is a time for some things.
And a time for all things.
A time for great things.
And a time for small things.

Soon another staff will be publishing another book. We hope that through this year our staff has captured the memorable events. Many have given of their precious time to editing this book, and for this we owe our thanks.

As another year approaches, let us all face it with the enthusiasm and faith that is so essential in this complex world.
